ACME Screening Room

STUDENT FILM FESTIVAL 1.0

presented in association with

DETAILS:

We are accepting film submission from high school and college students (or those home-schooled, unschooled or not in school) ages 14-24 from Hunterdon County, NJ and Bucks County, PA, for our Student Film Festival 1.0, July 23 & 24, 2010 (held in association with Princeton Student Film & Video Festival July 21 & 22, 2010.)

Two main categories to which Hunterdon and Bucks County entrants are encouraged to submit films:
"Where I'm From: People/Community"
"Where I'm From: Land/Landscape"

These can be films on our local culture, community, landscape, a place, an animal or a specific local person, including self-portrait films about the student filmmaker's life in this area.

Students may also enter under other categories (animation, feature, etc) but we are encouraging Hunterdon and Bucks County students to submit to the "Where I'm From" category as the ACME Screening Room Festival will be focused on celebrating this area.

No cost to enter. All entries must be accompanied by completed entry form. Filmmakers selected for the festival will be invited to introduce their film and provide Q & A after the screening.

Selected entries may also be screened at the Princeton Student Film & Video Festival presented on July 21 & 22, 2010 at Princeton Public Library, Princeton, NJ.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: JUNE 21, 2010
